

Developing A Heart for Evangelism - Ps. 51:6-13

Introduction

1. David gives us insight into what an evangelistic heart resembles.

I. It is filled with _____ - Ps. 53:6

A. Inward parts must be filled with truth

1. Helps us to develop God-like characteristics

II. It is _____ from sin - Ps. 53:7

A. The use of hyssop - Ex. 12:22; Lev., 14:1-7

III. It is filled with _____ - Ps. 53:8

A. The Psalmist and his troubles

1. He needed to hear some joyful sounds

IV. It will forego _____ - Ps. 53:9

A. Importance of forgiveness - Ps. 32:1

V. It is _____ - Ps. 53:10

A. Definition of "right"

1.

VI. It _____ with the Holy - Ps. 53:11

A. Must stay in the presence of God.

VII. It returns to its _____ - Ps. 53:12

A. Remember the joy when we were first converted

VIII. _____ Sinners - Ps. 53:13

A. David would teach sinners

Conclusion

1. In order for us to become more evangelistic, we must examine our hearts to see if we have a heart like David.

2. It is my prayer that each of us can develop David's heart and begin teaching sinners and turning them from their transgressions.